

Do not, again, do not weaken the "do not call" legislation of NJ or any other state. Peace at home is a priority. If you believe that others have the right to disturb my family through unwanted and often rude solicitation calls, you are sadly mistaken. The home phone is not a vendor's tool and should not be turned over to those who wish to peddle their services or goods.